WHO I AM

More Than an Athlete.

I am Julius Williams III - an NCAA Division II All-American triple jumper, coach at D1 Training - Madison, personal trainer, published author and poet, and a junior accounting major with a minor in entrepreneurship at UAH. I pursue excellence across athletics, business, coaching and creativity while staying rooted in service and purpose.

FAITH AT THE CENTER

My relationship with Jesus Christ is the foundation of my identity. God has been the dominant guide in my life and in shaping me into the wonderfully made man I am today. I am not a perfect man, but I strive to live with high character, love, compassion and purpose.

● JESUS CHRIST

The foundation of my faith, identity and direction.

● CHARACTER

Integrity, compassion, humility and purpose in how I live.

● PERFORMANCE

National-level track & field with professional goals.

● CREATIVITY

Poetry, storytelling and content that carries meaning.
